

We Serve

coming it is a great time to reflect on what we have given and what we have been given. We have some very exciting times coming with some very worthwhile service projects on the horizon, now is the time for each of us to dig deep into our selves to determine what we want to contribute to the club and the community this coming year which will enhance both groups. We have remained Northside strong only because our membership and its leadership refuse to take any other direction. Let's continue to stay the course.

~Till next month, PID Dennis.

From the desk of President Lion Ron Hansen

Hello everyone,

It feels to me that winter may be here and we are as busy as ever. Hopefully you will be at the club Christmas party at First Evangelical Lutheran Church as this is always a good time with great people.

By the time you read this the lights on the Veterans' Memorial Causeway will have been officially lit on Friday, November 29th. Some of our members are starting to drift south and west. To all that have or are planning to do so, safe travels and have a great winter.

We are asking our members to remember those of us who are having life difficulties within our families and their own health issues. You are asked to keep Secretary Pat Wiseman aware of those Lions and their family members who need to be remembered as she will be sending get well cards. Please keep Lion Ed Weessies aware as well so he can keep the membership aware.

Thank you all for what you do for those in need. ~Lion Ron

From the desk of Lion Dennis Cobler, PID

Hello Lions:

Thanksgiving day will have come and gone by the time this gets to press but it should be restated once more how lucky we are to have such an active Lions club with so many members willing to take up the challenges our community presents. The programs at the meetings have been good as well as the attendance. The only thing that would or could make it better is seeing more members at these gatherings and while we may not let you know it in a timely manner each of you are indeed missed.

The up to date report on the calendar sales is good, we have deposited $11,500.00 which means our commitment to the prize money has been met and every calendar sold now represents $20.00 into our community service fund. Keep those sales going, all of the calendars are out and in the hands of our members.

December is also a month of giving thanks and with Christmas

An Editorial by:

Lion Ed Weessies, PCST
Lions Tale Editor

Fellow Lions,

Like November, December is another special time for me. Another reason to spend time with family and friends in this most special time of the year.

Our Raffle Calendars were distributed in September. If you have all of yours sold, please bring in your sold cards and money or call Lion Dennis Cobler to arrange for you to deliver them to him. If you need more contact Lion Dennis or me and we will get them to you. If you are having difficulty selling the calendars issued to you, don't wait to the last minute, call Lions Dennis, Windy or me to get them picked up. Remember. They make great gifts for family and friends. Make someone happy.

As a Lions family it is that special first meeting of the month where we join together to begin the Christmas season. Then it is that Sunday when we take underprivileged children shopping, helping them wrap gifts and have lunch. Lastly is the trip on December 23rd that our famous member Dandy, along with Santa, visit children in the pediatrics unit at Mercy Health and at Muskegon County's Child Haven. It is hoped that as it was last year, all children will be home.

December is also a time for us to really should start planning for the events our club will be involved in during 2014. Committee chairs should begin their planning, setting dates and making sure the equipment needed is available or ordered, sign-ups prepared, advanced notice to members given and permits secured. We should also continue to seek out giving individuals to join our ranks to extend our ability to help those in need. If you need a membership application please contact me and I will make sure you get them right away.

In 2014, we as Lions have some special events. The Michigan Forum is a weekend in February for learning and sharing. At our district and state conventions, we conduct our business, have time for learning and have a lot of fun with friends new and old. Contrary to popular belief, our conventions are NOT just for past district governors and old timers like me.

I hope you have a joyous Christmas and a safe and enjoyable New Year's celebration. Rest up in January, February and March, enjoy each other's company at meetings, as we will be having a busy 2014 raising funds and working on community service projects helping those in need.

Yours in Lionism,

The Gold Wrapping Paper

Once upon a time, there was a man who worked very hard just to keep food on the table for his family. This particular year a few days before Christmas, he punished his little five-year-old daughter after learning that she had used up the family's only roll of expensive gold wrapping paper.

As money was tight, he became even more upset when on Christmas Eve he saw that the child had used all of the expensive gold paper to decorate one shoebox she had put under the Christmas tree. He also was concerned about where she had gotten money to buy what was in the shoebox.

Nevertheless, the next morning the little girl, filled with excitement, brought the gift box to her father and said, "This is for you, Daddy!"

As he opened the box, the father was embarrassed by his earlier overreaction, now regretting how he had punished her.

But when he opened the shoebox, he found it was empty and again his anger flared. "Don't you know, young lady," he said harshly, "when you give someone a present, there's supposed to be something inside the package!"

The little girl looked up at him with sad tears rolling from her eyes and whispered: "Daddy, it's not empty. I blew kisses into it until it was all full."

The father was crushed. He fell on his knees and put his arms around his precious little girl. He begged her to forgive him for his unnecessary anger.

An accident took the life of the child only a short time later. It is told that the father kept this little gold box by his bed for all the years of his life. Whenever he was discouraged or faced difficult problems, he would open the box, take out an imaginary kiss, and remember the love of this beautiful child who had put it there.

In a very real sense, each of us has been given an invisible golden box filled with unconditional love and kisses from our children, family, friends and God. There is no more precious possession anyone could hold.

International Leo Day

On December 5, Leos around the world celebrate International Leo Day. This is an annual occasion to applaud Leos for their dedicated service in the community and recognize their commitment to the Leo Club Program.

Leos and Lions celebrate International Leo Day in many ways, from hosting social events, to organizing special service projects.

Now Available: MyLCI for Leos

The Youth Programs Department is excited to announce the launch of MyLCI, the new and improved online membership and service activity reporting system for both Leos and Lions. Leo club officers, Leo club advisors, and sponsoring Lions club officers can now utilize MyLCI to report Leo members, Leo officers and service activities for Leo clubs. In the future, it will also allow Leos and Lions at the district and multiple district level the ability to view information about Leo clubs within their respective areas.

The Lions Step In

Lions clubs in the Pacific Northwest saw the need, and wanted to do something to make the holidays happier. "The kids on the islands didn't have transportation to and from the big cities," according to Don Wight of the Bellingham Lions Club. "One of the islands asked if a boat that had lights on it could possibly come out to the islands with candy and toys for the kids."

That marked the beginning of the Christmas Ship. Every December for the past 60 years, Santa has suited up and stepped off the Christmas Ship to bring gifts and joy to people living in remote islands off the coast of Bellingham, Washington in the United States and British Columbia, Canada.

The Gift that Keeps on Giving

Today, Lions dressed as pirates, elves, clowns and Santa all climb aboard the Christmas Ship to create a unique holiday experience. Dozens of Lions clubs throughout Washington and British Columbia collaborate to make the project a success. "It just is inspiring to everybody there. Everybody feels it," says Judy Portas of the Abbotsford Lions Club. "It's just a vibration and they all cheer and wait. So it's just a great, great experience."

Almost all of the islands that the ship visits are home to a Lions club. And every island offers its own brand of hospitality – from bagpipes to bonfires to a fire truck escort. "It's certainly well received on the island," says Harry Lane of the Main Island Lions Club. "It's an event nobody's gonna miss, that's for sure."
